

OLNEY TURNED DOWN

The Senate Rejects His Suggestions.

MILLS' RESOLUTION SUPPORTED

Beacon of Georgia Declares Congress Has the Right to Recognize New Governments.

WASHINGTON, January 13.—Senator Olney was turned down today in his effort to have the vote on the extradition treaty between this country and the Orange Free State and the Argentine Republic reconsidered for the purpose of withdrawing the senate amendments. He was beaten at every point. At the conclusion of a two hour session the senate resolved to stand by its original decision not to accept the treaty without the amendment protecting American citizens. The secretary had requested citizens in a long letter that the senate amend in making these trustees conditional on their own citizens should be withdrawn. Almost the entire session today was given to speeches by members of the committee on foreign relations, showing there should be no change in the treaty, which had, the speakers said, worked well for over a hundred years. Speeches were made by Senators Mills, Bacon and Olney and it was stated that the committee stood as a unit in opposition to the innovation proposed by the secretary of state.

At the conclusion of these speeches the senate adjourned without division to allow its previous vote, to ratify the treaty without amendment, to stand, thus ignoring the secretary's request. A resolution by Mr. Bacon, of Georgia, was agreed to, directing the committee on mines to report on the best means of securing complete statistics of the output of American mines. The house bill was passed, sending back to the amount of $25,000 for a water system.

Mr. Allen of Nebraska asked permission to have the Congressional Record corrected in the subject to one of his speeches by striking out the words, "Success of Mark Hanna," and "Failure of Mark Hanna."

"Is there any objection to striking out the words 'Success of Mark Hanna,' and 'Failure of Mark Hanna,'" asked Mr. Allen. Mr. Bacon, of Georgia, in his speech in support of the Mills resolution for the recognition of Cuban independence, directed his argument to the question of the exclusive right of congress to recognize new governments. The issue between congress and the executive branch he said, had been sharply drawn by the public utterances of the secretary of state, denying the right of congress to exercise the prerogative of recognition, and the executive branch, claiming that power was the most complete representative of a country's sovereignty, and that as recognition was an sovereign act, it properly belonged to the law-making branch. The only exclusive power of the President was in granting pardons. The recognition of foreign governments, however, was a sovereign act, it properly belonged to the law-making branch. The only exclusive power of the President was in granting pardons. The recognition of foreign governments, however, was a sovereign act, it properly belonged to the law-making branch.

Mr. Bacon declared that the logical result of this claim of executive power was to make him greater in arbitrary power than any monarch on earth. It would permit him, in case of a trifling uprising in Manitoba, to recognize a handful of rebels as a legitimate government, and to withhold recognition from Cuba, although Cuban independence had been proclaimed by the Cuban people, and the Cuban government had been established by the Cuban people.

Senator Vest of Missouri stated he had nothing personally against Mr. Francis, but he was not in favor of the nomination of Mr. Francis to the position of secretary of the interior. He said that the Secretary had written and published a letter in which he asserted that the Democratic party was not in favor of the nomination of Mr. Francis to the position of secretary of the interior. He said that the Democratic party was not in favor of the nomination of Mr. Francis to the position of secretary of the interior.

ARMY REORGANIZATION.

The House Military Committee Ready to Report.

WASHINGTON, January 13.—Representative Miller's bill for the reorganization of the line of the army, which is partially based on Secretary Lamont's recommendations, has been under discussion by the house military committee for several days, and today the committee decided to report it to the house without change. The scheme is to organize the army into ten regiments of cavalry, seven regiments of artillery and two regiments of infantry and to limit the number of enlisted men, including Indian scouts and the hospital corps, to 20,000. Under this plan an artillery regiment is to consist of a colonel, lieutenant, three majors, twelve captains, fourteen first lieutenants, twelve second lieutenants, one sergeant major, one quartermaster sergeant, one chief musician, two principal musicians and ten musicians. Two batteries of each regiment are to be organized as field artillery with additional enlisted officers.

THOSE RAILROAD DEBTS.

The President Said to Be Waiting For Overtures.

CHICAGO, January 13.—A Post special from Washington says: It is understood that the President is waiting for definite and specific overtures from the Union Pacific reorganization committee before issuing a proclamation to initiate foreclosure proceedings against the road. The committee gave informal notice some time ago that a price would be paid for the Union Pacific system equal to several million dollars more than the principal of the security bonds.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

PERKINS' ELECTION FORMALLY DECLARED.

Both Reported Favorably Fixing a Minimum Rate of Wages on Public Works.

SACRAMENTO, January 13.—In the assembly this morning the committee on labor and capital reported favorably the following bills: Amending the act to create the office of commissioner of public works, fixing a minimum rate of wages for labor on public works, to establish and support a department of labor and appropriate money therefor. Dickinson in the senate this morning introduced a resolution, which was declared out of order, urging congress to establish a national agency for labor on this coast.

FRUIT AND GRAIN MARKETS.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 13.—The following are prices furnished by the San Francisco Fruit Exchange, Jobbing: Apples—Fancy, 12c; choice, 10c; standard, 8c; prime, 6c. Apples—Evaporator, 5c; choice, 4c; standard, 3c; prime, 2c; peeled in boxes, 12c. Peaches—Fancy, 6c; choice, 5c; standard, 4c; prime, 3c; peeled in boxes, 12c. Pears—Fancy, 6c; choice, 5c; standard, 4c; prime, 3c; peeled in boxes, 12c.

GRAIN.

Wheat—Weak; December, $1.83 3/4; May, $1.85 1/4. Barley—Weak; May, $1.05 1/4. Corn—Large yellow, 77c @ 80c. Bran—California, $1.80 @ 1.50 per ton. Asphyxiated by Gas. SAN FRANCISCO, January 13.—George A. Abel, chief grain inspector for the Produce Exchange, was found dead in his room today. He had been asphyxiated by gas. He was found lying on the floor and it is supposed he got out of bed to turn off the gas, but was too weak to get up. He was noted as a grain expert all over the world, and foreign buyers were always required his certificate on grain cargoes purchased by them. He had been chief grain inspector for five years.

SHERMAN SELECTED

McKinley Tenders Him the State Portfolio

THE SENATOR WILL ACCEPT

Hanna May Get His Place in the Senate—Alger for Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, January 13.—The Associated Press is able to announce tonight positively that Mr. McKinley has tendered the state portfolio to Senator Sherman of Ohio and that the distinguished Buckeye statesman has accepted and will be the premier of the incoming administration.

Speculation as to who would be the Ohio member in the cabinet of the President-elect has been persistently hovering about the names of Senator Sherman and Hon. Mark Hanna, the former being mentioned in connection with the state and treasury portfolios and the latter in connection with the head of the treasury and postoffice departments. It has been known for some time, however, that Mr. Hanna's ambition was a seat in the United States senate. The retirement of Ohio's veteran senator in the spring of 1898, at the expiration of Mr. McKinley's term as senator would expire two years hence, March 4, 1899.

The vacancy created by Mr. Sherman's retirement would be filled by appointment by Governor Bushnell, pending the assembling of the Ohio legislature in the fall of 1898. It is understood that the ill feeling in Ohio between the Sherman and Hanna factions has been cooled and that complete harmony has been restored among the leading members of the legislature. The impression that Governor Bushnell will appoint Mr. Hanna to the vacancy in the senate when Mr. Sherman steps out to assume the responsibilities connected with the head of the department of state, Senator Sherman declines to make any statement relative to the important announcement which is made tonight, but this in no wise militates against the authenticity of the report. Mr. McKinley had selected a key stone for the arch upon which his administration will rest, and he has selected Mr. Sherman as the keystone of the arch.

As Secretary of State Mr. Sherman would have a brilliant career which would last 42 years ago in the house of representatives, and bring to that exalted post a ripe experience which covered four terms in the lower house of congress and six years in the senate, and he would have been in the house of representatives for four years at the time of the treasury department under Mr. Hayes' administration.

AUSTRALIA'S WHEAT CROP.

She Will Become an Importer Instead of an Exporter. WASHINGTON, January 14.—The wheat crop of Australia for the coming harvest is short. So says United States Consul Bell at Sydney in a report to the state department, and then he supplies details as follows: The crop year will end in April next for wheat. The crop falls so short of the usual crop as to require the importation of wheat from the United States to the extent of about 12,000,000 bushels this year. Australia will have to import the deficiency from short crops. This misfortune to Australia will be of considerable benefit to our people, not only because the United States will supply the chief part of the deficiency, but because she will also supply a large part of the world's deficiency caused by the withholding of the 12,000,000 bushels usually furnished by Australia.

INDIAN FAMINE FUD.

LONDON, January 13.—The Lord Mayor's Indian famine fund has now reached over $175,000, of which amount William Watford Mayor gave $10,000.

GOODEY'S MURDER.

Jim Johnson to Be Charged With the Crime. The district attorney will proceed in a few days with the prosecution of Jim Johnson, an Indian, for the murder of Beasie Jack Goodey, a fellow tribesman, near Malaga last fall. The recent grand jury made some investigations, but not having sufficient time to complete them instructed District Attorney Snow to look further into the case. Charles Rone, another Indian, was also arrested for the murder, Johnson asserting that he was the guilty party, having seen him commit the deed. Rone has recently maintained his innocence and declared that he saw Johnson do the shooting. The examination made by Mr. Snow leads him to believe that Johnson committed the murder, and he will prosecute him on the charge. Rone is being detained in jail as a witness.

DEATH OF THE BOY GET DRUNK.

In the trial of a case before Judge Dickey, in the supreme court at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., an attorney remarked in justification of admissions made concerning the personal habits of his client, "The best of men get drunk." Judge Dickey in his charge to the jury said: "I dissent entirely, as I know you all do, from the opinion expressed by the attorney for the defendant, that the best of men get drunk. The best of men do not get drunk. If there ever was such a time, it has gone by in this and all other civilized communities."

WAS NOT SUCCESSFUL.

An Attempt to Compromise the Nestor Divorce Suit.

Joseph Nestor and his wife, formerly Miss Etta Jose, who is seeking a divorce from him, were in town yesterday and had a meeting for the purpose of effecting a compromise of the suit. An agreement could not be reached, however, and the probability is that none will be. They were the principals in the recent West Side episode, when, according to the bride's allegations, Nestor abducted her from the home of her brother-in-law, George Carlisle, and took her to his home on West Side, where he was residing. Nestor is accompanied by her mother on her visit to this city. Mrs. Jose appears to have the management of her daughter's side of the case, and the terms of settlement proposed by her were considered so unreasonable by Nestor that he refused to entertain them. He considers that the mother's demands are practically the same as those contained in Mrs. Nestor's complaint.

It was suggested at the meeting yesterday, which was held in an attorney's office, that Nestor and his wife try to agree upon the terms of a compromise. The father of the bride was present. Mrs. Jose then retired, together with the attorney. The couple, for whom the sea of life had become a tempestuous one, after the separation, were left in the room together. For several minutes they sat in profound silence, gazing at each other. Finally Nestor relieved the situation by bluntly asking the question, "Well, how about it, Etta?" With some hesitation she replied, "I guess things will have to go as they are going."

MARRIED CHEAPLY.

Justice Austin Helps a Loving Couple Out of Trouble.

J. J. Wood, aged 35, and Carrie Anderson, aged 31, both of O'Neil's, were married yesterday by Justice Austin. After the Justice had espoused them with the grace and dispatch for which he is so justly famed, Mr. Wood, with the breeziness of a footfaller, asked: "What are the damages, Judge?" "Three dollars," answered Austin, in the direct way of his. "The young groom puckered up his mouth, put his hand in his pocket, but did not find there what he expected, and then looked embarrassed. Finally he said: 'Judge, I didn't expect the tariff was so high; I've only got $2.50.'"

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

They Instill Officers and Gather For a Smoke.

Manzanilla Camp, No. 100, Woodmen of the World, held their semi-annual installation of officers at their "fore" (largely hall) last evening. Many "choppers" were present from all parts of the "woods," and the sound of their rattles was heard. After the installation, which was conducted by Past Consul H. Ford, the "choppers" gathered for an old time smoker, and many a joke was cracked on the "outside" as they sat on their "stumps." An enjoyed their merriment (?) and went. Finally the "wedges" was driven home by the many industrious blows of the Consul's "log" separator, and the neighbors repaired to their respective "hunks," well prepared for a good night's rest.

THE ANNUAL ELECTION.

The Central California Land and Improvement Company has elected the following as its board of directors for the year: August Weibe, Louis Gundlach, Leopold Gundlach, Alphonse Newcomb and Louis Kuehn. Mr. Einhorn was chosen president and August Weibe vice president. The Bank of Central California was selected as treasurer of the company.

THAT NEW MOVEMENT

Strange Rumors Circulating Concerning It.

IS IT A DEMOCRATIC SCHEME?

Genuineness of the Municipal Non-Partisan Movement Seriously Questioned.

The reform movement headed by T. O. White, to which reference was made in Tuesday's REPUBLICAN, has been receiving some discussion the past two days. The interest being shown in it is of a rather mild kind, and unless Mr. White takes off his coat and "whoops 'em up" it will hardly last throughout the week.

Mr. White's idea, it will be remembered, is to organize a Taxpayers' Protective Association, the purpose of which shall be the reduction of county and municipal taxes. The "heavy" taxpayers are to combine and take steps to secure retrenchment in the county and municipal governments. An expert is to be hired to watch the expenditures, and if he discloses any extravagance, the association will send in a general alarm and in three minutes the official spendthrift will have the whole Taxpayers' Protective Association sitting on his haunches. In a recent history the proposition does not in this respect appear to be looking merit or ground for existence.

What to some people is a peculiar phase of this movement is the extreme reluctance to know a non-partisan ticket in the field at the coming city election. This circumsistance has caused many to doubt the sincerity of the reform movement and has aroused particular suspicion. The city administration is in Republican hands, and there is not a fair-minded man in the community who will not admit that it has been an economical and successful one. It is not a fair-minded man in the community who will not admit that it has been an economical and successful one. It is not a fair-minded man in the community who will not admit that it has been an economical and successful one.

"Every good citizen will indorse a genuine reform movement, but there are circumstances connected with the present agitation that give rise to suspicion. Where, by the way, does the light taxpayer 'get off' in Mr. White's scheme? He gave his purpose is to organize the 'heavy' taxpayers. He gave his purpose is to organize the 'heavy' taxpayers. He gave his purpose is to organize the 'heavy' taxpayers."

"I have given some attention to the work of the present municipal administration, and I am compelled to say that it has accomplished a good deal. The lighting system has been greatly improved, there being twenty-five more lights than four years ago. The street cleaning has been added to the list of fighting apparatus. There have also been put in four new fire alarm boxes and forty hydrants. Over nine miles of sewer have been laid, and the sanitary condition of the city is excellent. All this has been accomplished notwithstanding that the tax for the past two years or so have amounted to $150,000 less than the year before. This is a good deal of money in the treasury to pay all bills."

"If there is any possibility of lowering the tax rate the record of the city will bear it out. If they are left in control of the city government."

An odd rumor in connection with the non-partisan movement is the General Election. Mr. White has been asked what he has to say about the General Election. He has been asked what he has to say about the General Election. He has been asked what he has to say about the General Election.

Asked whether the reformers would be rejoiced to receive the benefit of General Wickham's knowledge of political tactics, Mr. White answered that they would. He added that the movement was a genuine one and was in the interest of the people. He added that the movement was a genuine one and was in the interest of the people. He added that the movement was a genuine one and was in the interest of the people.

The arrival of Senator Wolcott of Colorado in England has created great interest among journalists of all kinds and degrees, and the senator is being escorted by a large party.

The Republic endorses the suggestion of the Merced Southern that a meeting of the publishers and editors of the San Joaquin valley be held in Fresno for the purpose of organizing a Valley Press Association.

Such an organization would be directly in line with the movement to unite the counties of the valley in an industrial union, and would serve to promote strength in the important work of uniting the valley in all matters of common interest.

If the brethren of the press decide to hold a meeting in Fresno they will receive a cordial welcome.

A SEVENTY-ACRE tract of orange land has been sold at Lindsay, Tulare county, for $120 per acre as a direct result of the exhibit made by that place at the Fresno Citrus Fair.

The fair has spread abroad the knowledge that we have in the San Joaquin valley a soil and climate that cannot be excelled for the production of citrus fruits, and when the further fact is widely known that the land can be bought at less than one-half the prices required in the older citrus belts, there will be no lack of purchasers.

The citrus fruit industry has a great future in Fresno and her neighboring counties.

The call correspondent who stated that the desire of some of the residents on the southern border of Fresno to be annexed to Kings county is caused by the high taxes in this county, was evidently misinformed.

The tax rate of Fresno is considerably lower than that of some of its neighbors, and though we have not the rate of Kings county at hand we are informed by people who pay taxes in both counties that their tax in this county is materially less than on the same class of property in Kings county.

The desire for division is due principally to the remoteness of that territory from this city and its comparative nearness to Hanford.

THE Hanford Sentinel received an order for extra copies of its issue containing a notice of the marriage of Emma Spreckels and Thomas Watson of San Francisco.

Mrs. Watson, it contained a just and sensible notice of her marriage. "People who are familiar with the style in the marriage of the rich are reported by the metropolitan dailies as understanding the lady's appreciation of a event. This will strengthen the impression that the late Miss Spreckels is a lady of good taste as well as strong character.

There is no grief that can compare with that of the gentle megawump, whose ribs are generously cushioned with the fat of the importer's industry.

He was compelled to assist in the election of McKinley in order to defeat Bryan, and now he squeals like a rat in a trap when he discovers that the Republican President-elect is not only determined upon speedily re-establishing the protective system, but is giving courage and encouragement to those who are paving the way for the movement toward international bimetalism.

The megawump is always a sufferer—a victim of human diabolism—but his condition at the present time is almost pathetic. He could almost love Bryan now if he did not hate him so for having compelled him to support McKinley—the wretched man who proposes to keep his promises.

Some of the San Francisco papers have struck a new lead for enterprise in social journalism. The announcement of a wedding for weeks or perhaps months in advance of their happening, the prediction of births if the parties are sufficiently prominent to warrant the attention, the forecast of divorce in advance of legal action, have become too common and tame as matters of news calculated to edify the Four Hundred, and the printing of large portraits of a newly married couple, accompanied by a lengthy statement setting forth the alleged fact that marital fidelity will prevail and no action for divorce is contemplated up to date. If there is any other place in the United States where information of this kind is in demand, it would be interesting to know where it is. Free Chicago journalism has not reached this dizzy eminence.

THE "EXPOSITOR'S" NIGHT.

The "Expositor" seems to take delight in repeating the state falsehood about Dr. Rowell or some of the owners of the Republic, a note to W. B. Shaw, and about the Republic's being printed on a press formerly belonging to the Sacramento Journal-Union. We owe the public an apology for again taking notice of the oft repeated and known falsehood of the "Expositor" but that no one may be beguiled into doubting the sincerity of the Republic in all of its professions we take occasion to say to the "Expositor" and to the public that neither Dr. Rowell nor any one connected with the Republic ever gave notice to the Sacramento Journal-Union, W. B. Shaw, a note for $200 or any other sum—nor did the present proprietors of this paper ever purchase or obtain by any other method a press from the Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

The bondman of Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue John Conger gave a note to their attorneys, Youngberg & Bondland of San Francisco, for $1000 as part of an offer of payment to the government for Conger's delinquencies. These bondsmen have since paid the note and interest. The transaction had not the remotest connection with the Republic.

When the present owners came into possession of the Republic they found among its assets a press formerly belonging to the Sacramento Journal-Union, and among its debts the unpaid account for that press. The account was paid in cash, and full settlement made of this and every other debt of the paper with no reservation, or understanding, or other obligation of any nature whatever.

The "Expositor" knows that its insinuations and its statements are without a shadow of truth as a warrant for its publication, yet it continues to insult the public and belittle itself by brazen repetitions. We do not expect the "Expositor" to retract anything or to make any effort to make truthful statements, nor do we care much about anything it may say concerning the Republic or its proprietors. Our only excuse for mentioning this matter at all in that no one may be misled as to the real facts.

JOHN B. GRANT is an aspirant for the mayoralty of San Diego, and will probably be the favorite nominee for that place. The name of Grant will sound better in that connection than that of Carlson, but the fact is that Grant is not one that is commonly followed with much honor or satisfaction. Independent movements in local politics are sometimes justifiable, but when political parties "get together" for no other common purpose than that of satisfying their hunger for political power, not much good can come from it, either to the parties or to the public.

It creates a golden opportunity for the unprincipled politician and the able and pure statesman from the Steath precinct, but when the final results are known the causes for congratulation are generally lacking all around. If young Grant has any political faith he will do well to stay with it, whatever it may be, and let the newspapers and jobbers go their way.

The legislature passed a strong anti-trust law, and appropriated $200 to pay the expenses of telegraphing the same to Washington. Must have been a pretty long-winded message to cost so much for wiring.—Hanford Sentinel.

The appropriation was evidently intended to cover all the expenses incidental to conveying the resolution to its destination. For the convenience of the operator a stenographer may have been employed to prepare a special type-written copy, a special messenger employed at the rate of $9.10 a minute to convey the message to the official telegrapher, and probably the chaplain was authorized to read up a special petition to the throne of graces on behalf of the petition, proper compensation for which would be required. Some people insist that legislative resolutions don't amount to anything, anyway, but when you come to read the bills you know better.

LUTHER BURBANK is a California farmer who has demonstrated that the possibilities of great success in tilling the soil are not a thing of the past, as some pessimistic people profess to believe. An exchange says of the work accomplished by Mr. Burbank:

"He is best known by a species of potato which he gave the name of 'Burbank's Wonder.' He worked for over 30 years of age, but he worked hard in the garden during the day and studied horticulture in the evenings till he became one of the foremost men in the state in that branch of business. Last week he sold to an eastern florist for the handsome sum of $10,000, a new species of yellow rose which he had evolved. His success is a proof that every vocation within our daily lives."

That ancient bit of philosophy is as true as ever was, and as true of agriculture as of any other industry.

The Populists have a woman candidate for the United States senate in the state of Washington. It is bound to happen some time, and why should not the woman state and the new party have the distinction of introducing the new woman into the most august lawmaking assembly in the new world?

So Grover L. Johnson's team novel congressionally. It used to be that way among "Californians, and we got over it so long ago.

It is curious where the popular delusion that Senator Perkins had a competitor originated. Nothing is stranger than the manner in which such errors are disseminated.

The Placerville Nugget says that "last year a blooming bunnycame on the girls." The bunnycame young man, my elbow, however, who waited all of the year for a blissful introduction at last did not receive, says that in his opinion the girls are a blooming bunnycame on last year. The question does seem to have two sides to it.

They have fixed things in the Emanuel Presbyterian church in Los Angeles. They have provided a nursery, and connected with the church office, and mothers can now take their babies to church without fear that the protests of the infants will disturb the worshippers. Also, the worshippers can go to church without fear that they will be disturbed by the protests of the babies. It is a particularly good one if there are infants enough in the church to justify it. Indeed, it ought to be excellent in almost any house of the church, and it is not a particularly good one if there are infants enough in the church to justify it.
